Prospects bright for 1968 grid season at Carmel High School

Returning veterans include Doug Lang at quarterback, Mark Spindler at fullback and Gary Cohn halfback, plus tackles Randy Siino and Garry Kelley, guard Tom Millott and linebacker Mike Dress.

Opening games against Junipero are this Saturday on the home field, JVs at 12:30 and varsity at 2 p.m.

In preparation, full-dress scrimmage games took place last Saturday. The JV Red team sneaked by its Grey-squad competition 7-6 and the varsity Reds, led by Doug Lang,

CV Garden Association

Flower show winners honored

"Autumn Magic" was the theme of the seventh annual Carmel Valley Flower Show Sunday and it aptly illustrated the magic that devoted gardeners can produce hereabouts.

It proved that wonders can be accomplished despite dry summers, gravelly soil, tunnelling gophers and nibbling deer.

First to be commended are the Garden Association members who worked long hours setting up, dismantling and being on hand to answer questions from 1 to 7:30 p.m. in the Tularcitos School multi-purpose room.

The committee in charge was made up of Mrs. J. H. Kelley, chairman; Salih Mehdy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott, Mrs. J. W. Milborn, Mildred Hattan, Mrs. William Wood, Lucile Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Maynard, W. B. Robbins, Mrs. L. C. Roller, Lynne Sims and Chris Scheiswohl.

ARRANGEMENTS

Sharing the spot-light with some stunning commercial exhibits was the flower arrangement table. First place winners were Mrs. Kelley with "Autumn Magic"; Beula Corona with "Woodland Fantasy", Rosemary Clifford with "Bonfire", Rosemary Roberts with "Amber Hills" and D. D. Maynard with "Early Twilight".

JUNIORS

Ribbons in the junior arrangement class (primary grades) were copped by Robert Jennings for "Bonfire" - first, and Glacys Zarazua, second.

Nancy Pryer won first place and Albertina Zarazua, second, in the 4th through 6th grade class with arrangements titled "Football Frolics".

CUT FLOWERS

In the cut-flower division first place winners were Mrs. J. H. Kelley, Mrs. G. de Dampierre, Rosemary Roberts, Burr Robbins, Nancy Sackman, Hideaway Motel, Ruth Pryer and Mrs. Paul Anthony.

POTTED PLANTS

In the Potted Plants division first ribbons went to Ruth Titus, Rosemary Roberts, C. E.

THE TIKI SAYS

If you have plants sitting on the patio or in the yard this summer and intend to move them indoors for the winter, wash your plants off thoroughly, check for scale and insects, spray if necessary and prune off the dead growth. Move the plants indoors a week or so before the furnace is controlling the temperature of your home so they may become adjusted more gradually to the temperature change.

Annual competitive show for Monterey County painters set

"Monterey County Painting - 1968", the fifth annual competitive show sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association, is scheduled for October 11 through November 2.

Judging will be by John De Vincenzi, professor of art at San Jose State College. Well-known throughout California as a competition judge, he has, in the past 15 years, juried over 40 shows in the central California region alone, including the first Monterey Arts and Crafts Festival in 1966.

Entry blanks have been mailed to those artists who have participated in the past; however, if any artist has not yet received his entry blank, they are available from the Museum on Lincoln in Carmel (P.O. Box 4807), or by phoning 624-2918. Paintings will be received on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 2, 3, and 4 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., and are limited to one entry per person not previously exhibited locally.

Three prizes of $300 each will be awarded. In addition, one of th e winners will be given a one-man show at the Museum in July of 1969.

Artists whose paintings are chosen will be honored at a "Meet the Artists" preview and champagne reception to be held Thursday, October 10, from 6 to 8 p.m., the evening before the exhibition goes on public view.

THE 1968-1969 CONCERT SERIES of the Carmel Music Society is discussed here by Mrs. Harry Lusignan and Dr. Harvey Marshall (he is program chairman) at a meeting of the organization's board members held at her Pebble Beach home. The five concert series is slated to begin in October, with a limited number of season tickets available through box office headquarters at Friar Tuck book shop in Carmel. (Photo by Julian P. Studio Theatre does it again with comedy hit

The Studio Theatre has done right well by Neil Simon, the bright young New York playwright whose "Come Blow Your Horn", which sparkled last weekend at the Studio Theatre as the third of his comedies to be presented there.

Following on the heels of "Barefoot in the Park" and "The Odd Couple" (with some musicals in between), this one has the same level of comic zip and zest as its equally popular predecessors. Director Gary Eldridge and his three leading players see to that.

Sam Karas, the possessive and loving parent who wants to keep his sons in the family business, is funny just standing there, and when he explodes into speech he is a riot.

Anita Tonn is in a mother-hen role that has a lovely scene with a telephone where, at wit's end because she can't find a pencil, she puts some fatal kinks into the plot.

James Glaser, as their elder son, does a nice character-switch from a ruthless smoothie into good sound husband material. He sees the light mostly because of an ultimatum from his girl friend, stylishly and forthrightly played by Virginia Mitchell.

George Gray III, as the little brother who leaves the family nest to share a den of iniquity with his big bad brother to learn about life outside his father's artificial fruit factory, does so with ruefully funny results.

And Kathi Risenhoover is good in her part of the sexy dumb-bunny who lives in the same apartment building and pops in at the wrong time (or right for plot thickening purposes) to create embarrassing moments.

The swanky New York apartment set was created by Bob Evans, Jr. Judy Evans is responsible for costumes and other clever people behind the scenes were stage managers Susan Trapkus and Walter Rousseau, who also doubled in set construction with Bettie DeWitt.

Circle Theatre to be refurbished

The Circle Theatre will be dark until Sept. 27 when it will re-open with a gala celebration and a presentation of "Ready When You Are, C.B.", according to business manager Michael Keller.

During the blackout Community Theatre members are completely redecorating and refurbishing the playhouse, inside and out. And they are planning a rummage sale of properties and costumes, date to be announced.

Among innovations to be introduced this fall is a reduction of prices: adult tickets will be $2.25 (instead of $2.75) and students (any age) $1.00.

"Lion in Winter" and "Roar of the Greasepaint" have also been announced for the new season.

Folksinger Sam Hinton to perform at MPC

Sam Hinton, folksinger, will give two public concerts under the title of "Singing Across the Land" at Monterey Peninsula College Friday, September 13.

No tickets will be required for the noon concert, which, though primarily for students, is open to the public. The evening concert is also free, but due to limited space in the music hall, tickets must be picked up at the MPC Community Services Office

Los Altos Hills OKs slope density control

"No opposition was registered at the public hearing." So said the news item on the Los Altos Hills city council's unanimous approval of a slope density ordinance several weeks ago.

The resulting changes in zoning had been under study for more than a year by the town planning commission whose recommendation was followed unanimously by the council. Mayor Ross Aiken described the new slope-density regulations as a "very fair" arrangement.

Los Altos Hills incorporated about 10 years ago to protect its one-acre zoning from expanding Los Altos, which permits quarter acre lots. As with Carmel Valleyites, its home owners take pride in their "rural atmosphere" and are alert to defend its scenic beauty.

Many residents there were jolted by the ugliness of shelves gouged into hills for home sites in a large development, Fremont Hills, several years ago. Several Los Altos Hills' officials watched with particular interest Carmel Valley's pioneering studies for slope density control, and were surprised when the Valley's proposal was shot down last spring by developers and ranchers.

The Los Altos Hills' slope density formula is simple and considered workable. The terrain of the community, not unlike Carmel Valley, covers varied grades, rolling from the valley floor up a mountain side.

Under the new ordinance, land sloping more than 10 per cent requires an average lot size between one and two acres, increasing in size as the slope increases.

On property with grade in excess of 40 per cent, the average lot will have to be increased beyond two acres. But this will be determined on an individual basis by planners, rather than by a hard and fast rule. The town council feels that where a lot size falls just short of the required area in proposed subdivisions, a variance will more than likely be granted. In a small community of parallel conservation interests like Los Altos Hills, there is some flexibility on such decisions.

Those in Carmel Valley who feel the importance of slope density control may take heart from the example of Los Altos Hills. With proper preparation and explanation to the rancher-opposition which largely killed the original Valley proposal, another effort might well be successful. It's worth a try.

PERSPECTIVE

TO THE EDITOR

Read good book lately?

To the Editor:

If you haven't read a good book lately the place to go is our local library.

Right now there are about 8,000 books to choose from...for the toddler on up. During school months there is a pre-school story hour.

If you can't find the local celebrities, the hardware store or vet or a lost cat--try the library. It's a good place to get pertinent information.

Also, through our librarian, one may order research books or get answers to reference questions from Miss Gretchen Mitchell of the Salinas Library.

On hand are books from the State Library in Sacramento in Arabian, German, French, Italian and Spanish in case you'd like to read in your native tongue.

There are about thirty books on many subjects in large print to make reading easier for people with limited vision (or lazy eyes).

A new set of World Book Encyclopedia has been added this month. Through the library we have access to any book that the Salinas library can obtain. At present we have a very efficient librarian, Mrs. Joan Ray, and her able assistant, Mildred Hattan.

Joan has put the library in very good shape and keeps it that way. She and Mildred do all the cleaning themselves. They are paid $150 and $1.25 per hour.

The library is a very vital part of our community and it seems to me that when people are doing a good job they should be paid an acceptable wage... one that is closer to the national or even local scale.

If you have any feelings on this matter perhaps by writing to Willard T. Branson we could get something done.

Yours truly,
Mrs. T. W. Hansen

Chicago bitterness

TO the Editor:

"When peaceful revolution is impossible, violent revolution is inevitable," thus spoke John F. Kennedy.

Can you imagine what the police would have done to a kid in Chicago if he had looked a cop straight in the eye and said that? The kid would have no teeth, just a crunchy mouthful and a shredded tongue, a broken nose, bashed skull, and twisted or broken arms as the police, (public servants) threw him in to the back of a van. And what about that lady, one of you, a member of the adult world, that was stopped after picking up a couple of girls and guys, the same as you find anywhere, and had two tear gas guns shoved at her face.

One noble guardsman hoisting his bayonet high to show his mighty power of life and death over her... the gun was loaded. I don't blame the guy in the back seat for yelling and screaming at the "good guys"; I was screaming right along with him. I am a kid, just a snorty-nosed kid to most of you, but I don't care any longer what you think of me, because when I see things like a "free democratic convention" or even things like beating up repeatedly without mercy a young man begging for food who had so much love in him that he wanted to teach it and keep it coming and did so by example when he refused to press charges.

When I see these things, I no longer want to be an adult. I want to be a man. I want peace; I want love and I am willing to work for these things. We are living in a police state which is fine, I suppose, if you don't want to shake up any old ladies and keep the streets sick, but quiet.

I say revolution, preferably peaceful, but if I must get my head bashed in to be heard or even seen, then I will.

This written to you of the adult world: Take heed, - your hour grows late; the young are growing; show us the way or we shall have to find it in spite of your attempt to conceal it.

This is not blaming anyone; it is merely painting out facts that now are impossible to be ignorant of. "The whole world is watching," chanted delegates. "The whole world is watching."

The Rhyming Philosopher

Like little drops of water make buckets full of rain
Reminds me of the money we're pouring down the drain:
Cadillacs for potentates, but nothing for the slaves,
It makes you stop and wonder how government behaves.

A hundred million foreigners must first have food and clothes,
But how the needy fare at home nobody cares or knows.
We ship the Russians scads of wheat and up our price of bread ---
Pursue this course a few more years and then we'll all be dead!

Too many folks think friendliness is picking up the check,
Or we can save the whole wide world by sticking out our neck.
You never earn a man's respect by licking on his shoes,
Or kept the devil off your back by taking his abuse.

The more I hear of master minds the more I gasp for air;
The more I hear of politics the more I rave and swear.
I yearn for olden days when we were better off by far
When all this country needed was a good five-cent cigar! Harry W. Fletcher No. 277

New Cal-State Airline prepares to serve Monterey Peninsula

A new airline was introduced to the Monterey Peninsula last week with the inauguration of service by Cal-State.

Cal-State vice president Richard Dick and his wife Ollie of Carmel Valley were on hand to welcome dignitaries aboard.

Service in Beechcraft 99 and Handley-Page Jet Stream planes will be offered between Monterey and Valley and Coastal cities, linking Bakersfield, Fresno, Visalia, San Jose, Santa Maria, Santa Barbara and Oxnard/Ventura on the north; Burbank, Los Angeles, and Long Beach on the south and Las Vegas on the east, according to Dick.

When the "Jet Streams" go into operation, Cal-State will be the first third-level carrier to employ stewardesses and serve alcoholic refreshments on flights, he added. The schedule is set to begin in November.

Accolades for Hidden Valley Music Seminar leaders

MRS. WALTER LEHMANN of Carmel received the Hidden Valley Music Seminars' Atwater Award from Director Peter Mecke after a recent concert at Robert Louis Stevenson School. Mrs. Lehmann also accepted an award for Mrs. Charles Trumbley. The ladies were honored for their support of the summer sessions for talented high school musicians.

This year as well as last, Hidden Valley was conducted at Robert Louis Stevenson School in Pebble Beach and it looks forward to the day when it can function year round. The first four years of its six years' existance were spent in the Los Angeles area. Peter Meikel, its founder and executive dean, is also a member of the administration staff of RLS.

STANDING OVATION

Its choral and instrumental performers won a standing ovation at the Cabrillo music festival in Santa Cruz, and have been granted support for a cultural "exchange" tour by the U.S. Department of State.

Young musicians of exceptional talent came from all over the country to attend the two five week sessions. Local boys Andrew Erlich, violin, and Gregory Sprung, trumpet, were among the students this year.

Those interested in Hidden Valley, either as supporters or potential students, may make inquiries by writing P. O. Box 942, Pebble Beach.

Bridge builder Johnson retires after 45 years

Most people don't have an opportunity to frame their view of life with the remnants of past accomplishments, but I. T. Johnson did just that:. A veteran bridge engineer, I.T. retired last Friday after 45 years of work, and his spectacular view of Carmel Valley is literally framed by one of his bridges...or at least parts from it.

One of I.T.'s (that stands for Irwin Twining) first jobs in the state of California was the Richardson Bay Bridge in Marin County. Ten years ago when he was planning his house off Country Club Drive, he discovered that that bridge had been dismantled and the huge beams had been consigned to the Big Sur Redwood Company. Tracking them down, I.T. found that the last of them had been bought by a lawyer whom he contacted immediately...and he persuaded him to sell eight of them. These weathered and worn beams form the basic construction of the Johnson living room, making soaring floor to ceiling windows.

I.T. was born in Missouri and educated at University of Illinois and Washington University. He came to California by way of Washington State where he designed two railroad bridges which are still the highest spans over water.

By the time World War II broke out, I.T. had been involved in the construction of bridges in all of California's 58 counties except one...A great majority of these structures were on the Coast Route through Big Sur, where he worked on 30 out of the 36 bridges which tie the winding road sections together.

During the time when he was doing the site planning on the wild south coast, I.T. and his wife and their two boys lived down at Slate's Hot Springs. In the days of the road construction, there were plenty of people who didn't want their privacy invaded by the road department and they made it clear a number of times behind the barrel of a shotgun. However, these were also the days when the Big Sur people were still in their isolated habitat as pioneers, so the Johnsons made friends among the oldtimers over many a potluck dinner.

I.T. has been the head maintenance engineer with the Monterey County Road Department for the past four years, but this hardly means sitting behind a desk and telling others what to do. He is out where the job is being done. Several years ago when Rancho Fiesta Road washed out, he was out there with the rest of them ankle deep in water with torrents of rain running down his hat, helping to direct traffic on the Valley Road.

Friday, which he and his wife Alice designated as TGITLF (Thank Goodness It's The LAST Friday) his mileage count suddenly dropped considerably.

A former president of the Carmel Valley Garden Club, I.T. 's yard shows the TLC afforded by a man who loves growing things. His background is one of interest in conservation, which makes an interesting combination, since so often the members of the Road Dept. are the guys in the black hats and the tree lovers are the ones in white.

Don't let anyone think that I.T. Johnson will suddenly withdraw into a shell now that he has retired, because he has many plans afoot to keep him busy.

Any man who builds bridges isn't about to find himself left at a jumping off place with nowhere to go!

More Helpful Hints From PG&E:
Five handy tips on household safety.

A Little Dirt or Lint can cause trouble. So make sure that burners and controls on your gas furnace, wall or floor heater are clean at all times. And clean or replace dirty furnace filters periodically.

Get Rid Of rusted or loose fitting vent and flue pipes. Have them checked annually. And if you suspect a gas leak, CALL PG&E IMMEDIATELY.

Once A Year
have your gas appliances thoroughly checked by your furnace man or plumber. While he's there he should make sure safety pilots are operating properly, air openings on burners are clean and burners set for a blue flame.

Remember
to replace broken or frayed electric cords. Make sure all electric tools are properly grounded. Never put too many appliances on one outlet. And always discourage youngsters from tampering with cords or outlets.

It's Up To You
to practice good home safety habits. Don't place furniture or draperies over floor furnaces. Don't let gas accumulate before lighting a burner manually. And always make sure the burners on your range are off completely when not in use.

PG&E Is Ready To Help
If you call for a PG&E service man to check out any gas leak or inoperative gas appliance, ask him to show you where your gas pilots are located and how to go about relighting them. If repairs or parts are ever required for an appliance, call an appliance or furnace service man or your plumber.

The Mothers' Koffee held each fall at the Playtime Nursery School on Upper Circle is an annual event which gives mothers an opportunity to get acquainted with each other, the staff, and hear a discussion of the program which has been planned for their pre-school child.

Greeting the mothers were Mrs. Michael Antoncich, owner of the school; Mrs. Doris Mark, Director; Mrs. Betty Hansen, assistant director, and Mrs. Frank Bresk, substitute teacher.

Stated Mrs. Mark in her introductory talk, "Nursery school is the child's world and we are interested in them finding a good picture of themselves."

DUAL CELEBRATION

Special guests at the La Rancheria home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bolgard have been their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Bolgard, son Spencer and daughter Brandreth who are here from Rye, New York. The visitors who arrived at the beginning of August left for the East last week after a full schedule of sight seeing which not only included our Valley and the Peninsula, but San Francisco and Mountain View as well.

A dual celebration was the cocktail and dinner party which was given in honor of their daughter-in-law, as it was her birthday. Marjorie shared the spotlight with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doty for whom it was a wedding reception. Mrs. Doty is Cliff's sister. The newlyweds will make their home in Garden Grove.

Guests invited for the occasion were: from Mountain View, another son Roger Bolgard and his family - daughters Amy and Nancy - Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wade, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Blacow, and Miss Barbara Wade.

2 SURPRISE PARTIES

Mrs. James (Mike) Cecka of Flight Road celebrated her birthday this year with not one, but TWO surprise parties. With her daughter, Leigh Ann, Mike was invited to a luncheon in Monterey at the Whaler as the guests of Diane De La Hunt. Arriving at the restaurant, Mike was surprised to find guests waiting to congratulate her. they were Doreen Ellis, Rita Pluchinski, Donna Ellis, Mae Evans and Chris Ellis.

That evening, enroute to town with husband Jim and children for a family dinner at the Branding Iron, the Ceckas were discussing their son Mike who is attending the summer session at UCLA. After they were seated at their table, Mike noticed extra places were set and was told that a few friends had been invited to join them, but kept Mike in suspense until their son Mike arrived and greeted his very surprised Mom with a birthday kiss. Dianne De La Hunt had been one of the conspirators in this plot. With Donna Pluth, who also attended, she had met son Mike at the airport and kept him hidden until time for the memorable dinner.

August is a month of birthdays in the Cecka family and a third successful surprise party was arranged for their son Carl by his parents on the patio at the family Flight Road home. Assisting with party plans were Vickie Graham, Cherise Wallace and Terri Graham. When Carl was called to the door to greet a guest he found a large group of school and Youth Center friends who arrived for the hamburger barbecue followed by dancing to records. Attending were Chris Koontz, Lyn Child, Leigh Ann Cecka, Claudia Edwards, Jane Crush (a former Valleyite who now makes her home in Los Angeles), Ted Tod, Dave Kawanakoa, Lance Crooks, Jody Steliga, Andy Fry, Kristin and Nancy Reams (former Valleyites who have been living in Juneau, Alaska), and Regina Howland, Allen Koontz, Jeanette Harber, Karen Stone, Steve McClaren. A favorite gift was from Mike at the Pizza Parlor...two of his special pizzas!

BOY FOR MORSE'S

Mr. and Mrs. Don Morse welcomed a son who was born August 15 at the Community Hospital. Michael Morse is the name which they have chosen for the little boy who weighed 8 lbs. 4 oz. It had been nearly two years since Peggy had seen her parents Mr. and Mrs. F.J. Chambers of Little Rock, Arkansas, so she was doubly delighted that they were here for the birth of little Michael and that they brought with them her brother, Tony, who is stationed at Clarksville with the Marine Corps. Proud brothers Greg and Mike and Mark Gladden have been telling their playmates of the new addition to their family.

Peggy was guest of honor at a recent shower held at the Del Rey Oaks home of Mrs. Dori Howard. Guests included many of the employees of Aldon's (the Cannery Row restaurant of which Don is part owner), who presented her with a lovely crib and high chair for Master Morse.

The family is looking forward to the September 16th arrival of Don's mother, Mrs. Tillie Morse who is coming from Cleveland, Ohio, to welcome her grandchild.

The hospitable Murphys on Salsipuedes have just saidgoodbye to their most recent houseguests, Lee's brother and sister-in-law, Virgil and Sherry. The eastern Murphys of Bettendorf, Iowa, flew out for a two-week visit. Ginnie and Lee presented them with the keys to one of their cars so that they could explore the Peninsula on their own. In addition, they were entertained by Enid and Jack Rauber and attended several plays.

CV Mineral Society NW Territories' talk

An illustrated lecture on the Northwest Territories by Dave Johnson of Southern California will feature the September meeting of the Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society this Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Brey Hall, Carmel High School.

Final plans will also be made for the club's annual Gem and Mineral Show the 'Jubilee of Jewels' to be held October 12 and 13 at the Monterey Fairgrounds.

France Youth Center prexy

This summer has been an experimental one and we've been trying out new activities. We took trips to Arroyo Seco, Santa Cruz, etc. We took a boat cruise in Monterey Bay which was rather different. Sometime in the future we would like to plan a boat caravan to Santa Cruz. As far as the ski trip goes, there are still openings if you're interested. The price is $40 a person for room, transportation and free use of the slopes for one day.

As you know, we just had elections last month. Your new officers are: President, Tomi France; Vice-president, Lyn Child; Secretary, Vicki Graham; Treasurer, Terry Graham; Historian, Gina Howland; Sgt.-at-Arms, Randy Smith and Pete Grissim; and band chairman, Nancy Stekley. These are the people who will be running your youth center for the next year.

we have an interesting calendar for September. On Sept. 20 we have a dance with "Plymouth Rock" supplying the sound. On Sept. 21 there's to be a bake sale. On Sept. 22 we're throwing a Pet Show which should be pretty wild. Sept. 27 we're going bowling and on Sept. 28 it's a beach party. Don't miss the dance; it's going to be wild.

Don't forget that the Saturday Matinees have started again. Next Saturday's feature will be "Tarzan and the Great River".

Do we think, or just think we think?

You'd be careful, wouldn't you, not to let thieves into your home?

But have you ever thought of being just as careful about what you let into your mental home — your consciousness? Your thoughts not only determine the kind of life you lead, but the kind of person you are.

John H. Wyndham, C.S.B., of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, has proven in his own prisoner-of-war experience how an understanding of God as divine Mind — as the true source of intelligent thought — can help one survive the most demoralizing pressures, even brainwashing.

Mr. Wyndham's remarkable experiences will be recounted in his talk entitled "Do We Think, or Just Think We Think?"

You and your friends are most cordially invited to attend this free public lecture.

Carmel Schools open with a record 1st morning registration

School opened yesterday in the Carmel Unified School District with a total early registration of 3,013 as against 2,914 last year.

The High School had 982; Middle School 777; Tularcitos, 504; Woods, 165; River, 371; Carmelo, 173; and Capt. Cooper, 41.

These figures don't include the 20 children who assembled at Palo Colorado School at 8:30 a.m. The School district does not consider them enrolled, according to Supt. Harris Taylor, since the school was officially closed by board action.

The parents have protested the closure and notified the superintendent that they were going to send their youngsters to the one room school and expected a competent staff there to receive them. However, the doors were locked and no teacher was in attendance.

Nancy Bottaro, former teacher of the one-room Palo Colorado School, joined the faculty of Carmel High School with little comment Tuesday morning. She will teach health, U. S. history and reading.

"There was nothing I could do about the situation," she said when pressed for a comment about the closing of her former school. "It's just a reflection of the times; good things come to an end."

NEW POTTERY CLASSES

Generating special enthusiasm at Carmel High is an enlarged pottery curriculum, under the enthusiastic direction of Lloyd Baskerville, who also teaches English and is cross-country coach.

Two make-shift classrooms for pottery have been made in the old maintenance building behind the school. Instruction was formerly given at Sunset Center, causing transportation problems and other complications in the facilities of the adult education pottery program.

"We're getting started up here with minimum facilities," Baskerville commented. "But the fact that more than 90 kids have signed up -- three big classes -- indicates something." He added that it wouldn't be a snap course and, in fact, he had spread the word that it would be quite the opposite.

Forest Theater Opera program

An operatic program will be the finale this Sunday afternoon at 2, of the free summer series sponsored by Carmel Cultural Commission in Forest Theatre.

Presented by Peninsula Chamber Music Society, the first half will be opera numbers and the last half light opera.

Singers will be Helen Wheeler, soprano, a graduate of Vienna Opera, and James Hull, tenor, well-known local singer and music director for Marina School.

CHS Football

Mark Spindler and Rusty Vandervort, also won 7-0.

"The coaches felt that the boys have worked their assignments well over the last two weeks," commented Athletic Director Monte Feekes, who also helps to coach varsity football and will continue as baseball coach.

Succeeding Rudy Herr as athletic chief, Feekes has both a bachelor's degree from Humboldt State, class of 1965 and master's degree, 1967. There he played quarterback when Humboldt State was runner-up to the national championship team in the NCAA Small College division in 1962.

Assisting with other football coaching chores are Jason Harbert and Richard Zury, former Robert Louis Stevenson Coach, for the JVs, and Richard Charles and Robert Brooks, both new, from Southern California, for the freshman team.

Mike Antoncich hurt in accident

Michael Antoncich Sr. was injured Monday evening when he failed to negotiate a curve on Carmel Valley Road, 600 ft. west of Rancho Fiesta Road. According to CHP, Antoncich was traveling east at an excessive speed when the car left the road, came back and then overturned. He was taken to Community Hospital with major injuries by the CV ambulance.

Cypress Swim Club 2nd in Far West Synchronized meet

Cypress Swim Club won the silver, second-place medals in the 1968 senior Far Western AAU synchronized swimming championships at Paso Robles last weekend, narrowly losing to the Santa Clara Aquamaids.

The Cypress entry, "Flight of the Swans" swum by Bonnie Banker, Lindy Doud, Kathy Neill, Jan Roehl, Sharon Roehl, Susie Selfridge, and Judy Snyder, won the silver, second-place medals.

The Cypress "B" team entry, "Cotillion Waltz" swum by Susie Blandin, Laurie Doud, Susan Hooper, Wynn Norwood, Kim Pilkenton, and Lynnda Zarp, placed tenth in preliminaries, but moved to ninth place following stunt competition.

In duet competition, Cypress swimmers, Jan and Sharon Roehl placed fifth, and Bonnie Banker and Judy Snyder placed ninth. Susie Selfridge of Cypress placed ninth in solos, moving into the top ten for the first time in Far Western competition. The Roehl sisters tied each other for 13th place in solos, and Lindy Doud placed 15th.
